WHARF AND WAVE

THERE IS an unusually large shipment of oriental cargo destined for Honolulu on board the Pacific Mail liner Manchuria, which is due to arrive here on December 3rd. According to advices received at the agency of H. Hackfeld & Company, the vessel is bringing 2500 tons. The vessel has accommodation for about one hundred cabin passengers from this port.

THE OCEANIC steamship Alameda, which is scheduled to sail for San Francisco on Wednesday morning, will take a large shipment of Hawaiian island products to the mainland. There is a consignment of about five thousand sacks of coffee besides quantities of rice, sugar, canned pineapples and bananas.

A SHIPMENT of lumber consigned to the City Mill arrived at the port this morning by the American schooner Dauntless. This vessel comes from Grays Harbor and was thirty-one days in making the passage down to the Hawaiian Islands. Some rough weather and contrary winds prevented an earlier arrival of the little schooner.

James Donovan, who is declared to have been an involuntary guest of the police on ten previous occasions, again confronted Judge Andrade at Police Court yesterday morning charged with having been gloriously drunk. Donovan was sentenced to thirty days at the reef.

THE PACIFIC MAIL, intermediate steamer Asia, which left Honolulu on November 20th, is reported to have reached San Francisco early yesterday morning.

THE AMERICAN schooner Kona, with a shipment of lumber from Port Ludlow, is now forty days out from that port. The vessel is expected to show up at any time.

PURSER PHILIPPS of the steamer Mauna Kea, which arrived from Hilo and way ports this morning, reports the following sugar arrivals:

Dr. J. H. Raymond
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.
Alakea St., Mauka Pacific Club.
Office Hours—From 10 to 12; from 2 to 4; from 7 to 8.

2,476 sacks and Honolulu, 1,790 sacks.

A SHIPMENT of lumber from Port Ludlow is due to arrive at Kaa-napali most any day by the American bark Albert. This vessel left the coast port thirty-four days ago.

AMONG THE arrivals at the port this morning was the inter-island steamer Likelike, which brought two mill shafts, one automobile, 165 bales of hides, 6 barrels tallow, 11 packages sundries and on deck a shipment including 27 cattle and 25 calves. Fine weather was met with on both the outward and inward trip. The steamer Maui was passed by the Likelike at Honokaa yesterday.

THE FREIGHT list of the steamer Mauna Kea, which arrived from Hawaii and Maui ports this morning, included 8 sacks corn, 29 cords wood 7 crates chickens, 227 sacks taro, 16 crates celery, 11 bales vegetables, 7 awa, 19 crates coconuts, 42 sacks coffee, 159 packages sundries and on deck 252 sheep.

THE MATSON Navigation steamer Hyades is scheduled to sail for San Francisco by the way of Port Allen and Kahului this afternoon, taking a general cargo, including shipments of sugar and other Hawaiian products.

CLAMOROUS PROTEST AT SPOUSE'S INCARCERATION

Mrs. John Lindman made the weekling ring around the chambers at the police station this morning when she was informed that her liege lord had been sent to the reef for a thirty days' session with road work. Lindman is an old offender and has been before the police magistrate eleven times under the perni-cial charge of intoxication. His renewal of a promise to reform felt upon unsympathetic ears, but the wall of his helpmeet could be heard for a block until she was finally induced to leave John to his enforced retirement from this busy world.
